

Please do not change the no call list. Our seniors are being harassed daily by telemarketers and the like and being talked into scams that threaten their security and their well being. I urge you to not let banks have their way. Thank you.